

The Carson Daily Appeal

CARSON CITY:

Sunday..... November 5, 1876

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President:
RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

OF OHIO.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. WHEELER.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS
E. M. DUGEETT. Storey

GEORGE TUFLY. Ormsby

W. W. BISHOP. Lincoln

FOR JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT.
O. H. LEONARD.

FOR CONGRESS
THOMAS WREN.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

C. C. BATTERMAN. Chairman
C. W. STONE

Douglas..... J. W. BAILEY

ISMERALDA..... W. BUTLER

ELKO..... S. B. SMITH

LEO..... E. A. LITCHFIELD

YUCCA..... W. R. BARKER

MUSKOKA..... P. H. CANAVAN

HUMBOLDT..... C. B. STODDARD

LANDER..... A. E. SHANNON

LINCOLN..... G. A. BLASSON

ORMSBY..... F. R. CLUTE

TONY..... C. R. ZABRISKIE

ELKO..... J. D. SUMS

LEO..... E. P. SINE

TOKRY..... F. C. LOED

HENRY PIPE

CHARLES KING

C. C. BATTERMAN

ALE. DOLIN

ORMSBY..... GEORGE W. DEPANT

S. E. JONES

WAMHOE..... S. M. JAMESON

WHITE FINE..... W. M. THOMSON

GOLDEN STATE..... H. CARMEN

C. P. SWIFT

C. C. BATTERMAN, Chairman

F. C. LOED, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS AND PLATFORM OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Resolved—That the United States of America are free and not to be slaves, and by the combined wills of National and State Governments under their respective Constitutions the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad, and the cause of justice pursued.

Second—The Republican party has proposed the government of the people with the majority of the nation's heart, and they are now engaged in the great truths spoken at intervals—this all men created that they should have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, and that those truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the democratic party is unfinished.

Third—The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the enjoyment of all the civil and political rights to which the Republican party stands in its pledge, to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied, if the recent amendment proposed by those engaged in the Congress of the United States and all due care taken to be in the department of the Interior, with certain limitations and the right of self-government, have life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, and until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the democratic party is unfinished.

Fourth—The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the enjoyment of all the civil and political rights to which the Republican party stands in its pledge, to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied, if the recent amendment proposed by those engaged in the Congress of the United States and all due care taken to be in the department of the Interior, with certain limitations and the right of self-government, have life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, and until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the democratic party is unfinished.

Fifth—Under the Constitution, the President and heads of departments are to make nominations for office; the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to approve and disapprove the same; and it is the interest of the public service to demand that these distinctions shall be preserved, and that Senators and Representatives, who may be justices and assessors, should not dictate appointments to offices. The inevitable rule for appointment is that the Senate be consulted and advised, and the House of Representatives, giving to the party in power those places where the harmony and vigor of the Administration requires its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to efficiency of public service, and the right of all citizens to serve in the honor of conducting their country.

Sixth—We rejoice at the qualified concurrence of the people concerning political affairs, and will hold all public offices to a rigid responsibility, and engage in the promotion and punishment of all who abuse official trusts, so far as may be.

Seventh—The public school system of the several States is the buttress of the American nation and the Republic, and, with a view to security and permanence, we demand an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control.

Eighth—The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the subsistence of the Public debt must largely derive from duties on imports, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of American trade and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

Ninth—We call upon Congress to further grants of public lands to corporations and monasteries, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

Tenth—It is the imperative duty of the Government to provide, through treaties with European Governments, that the same protection shall be afforded to the naturalized American citizens than is given to the native-born citizens; that all necessary laws should be passed to protect immigrants, in the absence of power in the States for that purpose.

Eleventh—It is the immediate duty of Congress to grant a full and ample protection to the rights of the colored race, and to afford them the same protection as is given to the white race.

Twelfth—The Republican party recognises, with approval, the substantial advances recently made toward the establishment of equal rights for women, by the many important amendments effected by Republicans. Legislation has been enacted which secures the right of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendence of institutions of education, charity and other public trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

Thirteenth—The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power it is the duty of Congress to prohibit the introduction of slaves into the Territories. That rule of legislation, however, we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all our Territories.

Fourteenth—The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. This great people will always hold those who perished their lives for their country's preservation in the highest remembrance.

Fifteenth—We sincerely deplore all attempts to injure and enslave us, and we therefore call upon deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success, upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the voice of truth that the success of this unholy and traitorous party thus assembled would respect sectional strife and imperil the moral honor and human rights.

Sixteenth—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Seventeenth—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Eighteenth—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Nineteenth—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-one—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-two—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-three—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-four—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-five—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-six—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-seven—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-eight—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Twenty-nine—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-one—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-two—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-three—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-four—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-five—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-six—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, treacherous and impudent.

Thirty-seven—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with regarding the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes, with rejoicing and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion, with sending Union soldiers to the wall and protracted Confederate soldiers to the ranks; with the entire intent of the party to perpetuate the planted in the hearts of the nation, with being equally false and indecent in overthrowing the rules of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation, with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House, incompetent, inert, incapable to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting a party thus alluvial, tre